

True Love happens Naturally — at —

Stephen Foster Folk Culture Center State Park

Setting:

Majestic oaks and the legendary Suwannee River make this the perfect place for an outdoor wedding. The park is referred to as a hidden gem, with its oak shaded sanctuaries and trails winding through some of North Florida's most scenic areas.

Amenities:

Multiple locations are available for rent within the park, including two on-site reception facilities, a caterer's kitchen, amphitheater, covered pavilion, River Gazebo, azalea and camellia gardens, museum and tower lawns. Fully equipped cabins with wrap around porches are available for overnight accommodations.
